By executing the Flight Confirmation (whether by hand or by electronic signature, e.g. through DocuSign) or by accepting it in any other manner (in particular by confirming the Flight(s), whether orally or in writing, and/or by paying the Price), the Client accepts these Conditions of Carriage and confirms that it has submitted the Flight Confirmation and these Conditions of Carriage (and the Notice to the Passengers and the Summary of the provisions on air carrier liability for Passengers and their Baggage as set forth below) to all Passengers and that they have accepted the same. The Client shall cause all Passengers to comply with the terms of the Carriage Agreement (and the Notice to the Passengers and the Summary of the provisions on air carrier liability for Passengers and their Baggage as set forth below).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Carrier shall be entitled in its sole discretion on a case by case basis to refuse any form of acceptance of the Flight Confirmation other than the execution thereof by the Client. In such case, the effectiveness of the Carriage Agreement shall be conditioned upon the receipt by the Carrier of the Flight Confirmation executed by the Client, and the Carrier shall be entitled to withdraw and cancel the Flight Confirmation at any time if such condition is not satisfied immediately upon receipt of the Flight Confirmation by the Client.

The Client shall not be entitled to assign the Carriage Agreement to any person without the Carrier's prior written consent.

No variation of the Carriage Agreement shall be effective unless agreed in writing by the Carrier.

The Carriage Agreement contains the entire understanding between the Carrier and the Client with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersedes all prior and contemporaneous agreements and understandings, inducements or conditions, express or implied, oral or written (including any flight quotation issued by AASA (in its name, if the Carrier is AASA, or in the name of AAL, if the Carrier is AAL)).

In case of contradiction between the terms of the Flight Confirmation and the terms of these Conditions of Carriage, the terms of the Flight Confirmation shall prevail.

The Carrier's obligations under the Carriage Agreement are subject to the approval of the Flight(s) by the Owner (without prejudice to the Client's obligations under the Carriage Agreement, including the obligation to pay the Price). Should the Carrier inform the Client that the Owner denies such approval, the Carriage Agreement shall terminate, and the Carrier shall refund to the Client all payments (if any) previously received from the Client with respect to the Flight(s), whereupon the Carrier shall be released from any further obligation or liability towards the Client and/or the Passengers. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall only apply to the initial approval of the Flight(s) by the Owner; should the Owner then withdraw its approval, such situation shall be dealt with as an Adverse Event (as defined below) in accordance with Article 9.

Article 5: Client's and Passengers' Obligations

The Client shall indicate to the Carrier the identity of all Passengers sufficiently in advance before the first Flight and shall communicate to the Carrier all information and documents related to the Passengers as may be requested by the Carrier; in particular, immediately upon receipt of the Flight Confirmation, the Client shall provide the Carrier with all PNR Data requested in annex to the Flight Confirmation. In case of failure or delay by the Client to comply with such obligations for any reason whatsoever, the Carrier shall be entitled to treat such failure or delay as constituting a cancellation entitling the Carrier to the payment of the amounts set out in Article 8 (including the applicable Cancellation Fee (as defined below)).

The Passengers shall not smoke onboard the Aircraft unless it is expressly confirmed by the Carrier that the Aircraft is a smoking aircraft.

The Client and the Passengers shall comply with all laws, regulations, orders, demands and travel requirements of countries to be flown from, into or over (including immigration, customs and agriculture regulations) and with the Carrier's rules and instructions pertaining hereto. In particular, the Passengers shall be solely responsible for carrying a valid passport, obtaining any visa where required and ensuring the accuracy of any required document or information. The Carrier bears no liability for the consequences to any Passenger resulting from his failure to obtain such documents or to comply with such laws, regulations, orders, demands, requirements, rules or instructions.

The Client shall be billed and shall pay for any additional costs (including surcharges, fees, fines and penalties) resulting from such non-compliance by any Passenger.

If required, the Passengers shall attend inspection of their checked and/or unchecked Baggage by customs or other government officials. The Carrier shall not be liable to the Passengers or the Client for any Damage suffered by the Passengers or the Client out of or in connection with such inspection or the Passengers' failure to attend such inspection.

The departure airport, departure time, destination airport, arrival time and number of Passengers indicated in the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief may not be changed by the Client and/or the Passengers, save with the Carrier's prior written consent (in particular, the Client and/or the Passengers shall not rely on any consent provided by the crew of the Aircraft), in which case the Client shall pay to the Carrier any additional costs incurred as a result of such change agreed by the Carrier.

- (1) Weapons of any kinds, in particular side arms and sprays used for offensive or defensive purposes,
- (2) Munitions and explosives,
- (3) Articles which, judging by their outward appearance or making, look like weapons, munitions or explosives, the Client shall notify (or shall cause such Passenger to notify) the Carrier in writing thereof simultaneously with the signing (or acceptance in any other manner) of the Flight Confirmation and the Passenger shall submit said Weapons to the Carrier for inspection prior to the boarding of the Baggage.

The Carrier may, without obligation, accept carrying such Weapons as cargo or checked Baggage only in strict compliance with the applicable regulations governing carriage of dangerous goods.

The Carrier shall have the right to conduct a body search of the Passengers and/or a Baggage search to determine whether any Passenger is in possession of, or whether his Baggage contains, any Unsuitable Baggage or Weapons. Should any Passenger refuse such searches, the Carrier may, in its sole discretion, refuse to carry the Passenger or his Baggage and treat any such refusal by any Passenger as constituting a cancellation of the Flight(s) entitling the Carrier to the payment of the amounts set out in Article 8 (including the applicable Cancellation Fee). Furthermore, the Carrier shall be under no liability to the Passengers or the Client for any Damage arising in connection with any such refusal by any Passenger.

Article 7: Price and Payment Terms

Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Flight Confirmation, the Client shall pay the Price to the Carrier within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt of a corresponding invoice from the Carrier (the "Invoice") and, if the Invoice was sent before the beginning of the first Flight, in any case before the positioning of the Aircraft for such first Flight.

At any time after the acceptance of the Flight Confirmation by the Client (in particular before the issuance of the Invoice), the Carrier shall be entitled in its sole discretion to request the payment of the Price to be guaranteed by credit card.

In case of payment or guarantee by credit card, the Client represents and warrants to the Carrier that (i) the holder of the credit card consents to such payment or guarantee (and accepts to be debited in case of exercise of the guarantee) and (ii) such payment and/or guarantee (and the exercise thereof) shall not breach any applicable national or international law or regulation.

Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Flight Confirmation, the Price includes exclusively:

- (1) Handling agent services;
- (2) Landing and overflight charges;
- (3) Standard catering and bar depending on the size of the Aircraft;

The Carrier shall conclude the Ground Transportation and Accommodation agreements with the relevant service providers in the name and on behalf of the Client.

The Additional Services will be additionally invoiced to the Client and payable by the Client immediately upon receipt of a corresponding invoices from the Carrier.

Unless otherwise expressly provided in the Flight Confirmation, the Price does not include any value added tax and any other taxes or charges which may be imposed in any country on the Price (and/or any other amount payable by the Client and/or the Passengers under the Carriage Agreement) or otherwise in connection with the Flight(s). All such taxes and charges shall be borne by the Client.

All payments to be made by the Client or any Passenger under the Carriage Agreement shall be made without deduction, set-off, counterclaim or withholding whatsoever. first day of delay (without the need of any notice from the Carrier) until the date of actual payment (both before and after any debt enforcement or court proceedings), and the Client and/or the Passengers (as applicable) shall indemnify and hold the Carrier harmless against any foreign exchange loss, court and legal fees and any other Damage incurred by the Carrier as a result of such late payment. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Carrier shall be entitled to treat any delay in the payment of the Price (and/or any refusal by the Client to immediately guarantee the payment of the Price by credit card) as constituting a cancellation entitling the Carrier to the payment of the amounts set out in Article 8 (including the applicable Cancellation Fee).

Unless otherwise expressly provided herein, the Client shall not be entitled to any reduction or refund of the Price (or any part thereof) for any reason whatsoever. The Price is a fixed price, subject to any increase as provided in the Carriage Agreement.

The Client acknowledges and agrees that:

Article 8: Delay and Cancellation

The Passengers shall arrive at the airport sufficiently in advance to be ready (and on board with their baggage) at the departure time of the Flight (and in any case at least twenty (20) minutes in advance). In case of delay of the Passengers for any reason whatsoever, the Carrier shall be entitled in its sole discretion to treat such delay as constituting a cancellation of the Flight(s) by the Client entitling the Carrier to payment in accordance with the provisions of this Article (in particular, a Cancellation Fee in the amount of hundred percent (100%) of the Price). If the Carrier nonetheless accepts to perform the Flight(s), the Client shall pay to the Carrier any additional costs incurred as a result of the Passengers’ delay, a new departure time (which may extend to the following day, or the next airport opening day) will be determined by the Carrier and the Carrier shall not be liable for any Damage caused by such change.

In case the Flight Confirmation sets forth a different cancellation policy, the terms of the Flight Confirmation shall prevail over the cancellation policy set forth above.

In case of cancellation of the Flight(s), the Client shall in addition reimburse the Carrier for (i) all costs actually incurred by the Carrier in connection with any Additional Services related to the Flight(s) and (ii) any other Damage incurred by the Carrier as a result of such cancellation.

In case of partial cancellation, the full Price (and any other amounts due by the Client and/or the Passengers under the Carriage Agreement) shall remain due and payable and no part thereof shall be reimbursed by the Carrier.

Generally, in case of failure or delay by the Client and/or the Passengers to comply with any of their obligations under the Carriage Agreement for any reason whatsoever, the Carrier shall be entitled in its sole discretion to treat such failure or delay as constituting a cancellation of the Flight(s) entitling the Carrier to the payment of the amounts set out in this Article (including the applicable Cancellation Fee).

Article 9: Carrier’s Limitations

The Client and the Passengers acknowledge and agree that all Flights are subject to, and may be impacted by, the following parameters and/or limitations (collectively, “Adverse Events”):

- (4) The pilot in command of the Aircraft will be in complete charge and control of the Aircraft at all times and shall have absolute discretion as to all matters relating to the operation of the Aircraft. In particular, if, in the pilot in command’s sole judgment, safety of flight may be jeopardized, then the pilot in command may terminate, cancel or divert a Flight.
- (5) The Carrier (or the pilot in command) will refuse carriage or onward carriage, or will cancel any Flight reserved by the Client when:

 - b) Such action is necessary to prevent violation of any applicable laws, regulations or orders (in particular, those of any state or country to be flown from, into or over); or

Subject to any compulsory provision to the contrary of any applicable national or international law or regulation, in case of delay in the performance, or a diversion, cancellation or termination, of any Flight by the Carrier (or in case the Carrier is otherwise prevented from, or delayed in, performing its obligations under the Carriage Agreement or carrying on its business) due in whole or in part to any Adverse Event:

- (1) The Carrier shall not be deemed to be in breach of its obligations or bear any liability towards the Client and/or the Passengers;
- (2) If any Flight is diverted due to any Adverse Event and the Aircraft consequently lands at an airport different from the one indicated as the airport of arrival in the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief, the Flight shall be deemed completed and the Passengers shall be solely responsible for reaching their destination at their or the Client’s costs. No refund shall be made by the Carrier;
- (3) If any Flight is canceled or terminated prior to completion, due in whole or in part to any Adverse Event attributable to the Client or any Passenger (in particular, the conduct of any Passenger), the Carrier shall be entitled to the payment of the amounts set out in Article 8 (including the applicable Cancellation Fee) as if the Flight had been cancelled by the Client or the Passengers, plus any additional costs caused by such Adverse Event;

(4) If any Flight is canceled or terminated prior to completion, due in whole or in part to any Adverse Event which is not attributable to the Client or any Passenger, the Carrier shall refund to the Client all payments previously received with respect to such Flight, other than :

- a) Any cost incurred by the Carrier as a result of said cancellation or termination ;
- b) Any cost already incurred by the Carrier in connection with the Flight which has been canceled or terminated ; and for which the Carrier shall have the right to charge the Client ;

(5) The Client shall reimburse the Carrier for all costs actually incurred by the Carrier in connection with any Additional Services related to the Flight(s).

Subject to any compulsory provision to the contrary of any applicable national or international law or regulation, if, due to any Adverse Event, the aircraft designated in the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief is substituted by another aircraft (the “Replacement Aircraft”) before completion of a Flight (so that such Flight is not canceled or terminated in accordance with the previous paragraph of this Article), the following shall apply to such Flight (or portion of Flight) performed by the Replacement Aircraft (the “Replacement Flight”):

- (1) The Carrier shall not be deemed to be in breach of its obligations or bear any liability towards the Client and/or the Passengers (in particular in connection with such change of aircraft) ;
- (2) If the Replacement Aircraft is part of the Carrier’s fleet, (i) the Client shall pay to the Carrier any additional costs incurred in connection with such change of aircraft and (ii) the Replacement Aircraft shall be deemed to be the “Aircraft” for the purposes of the Replacement Flight ;

(3) If the Replacement Aircraft is not part of the Carrier’s fleet but is part of AASA’s or AAL’s fleet (as applicable), (i) the previous Carrier shall not bear any obligation or liability in respect of the Replacement Flight and shall in particular not be deemed to be the contractual carrier for such Replacement Flight, (ii) the new Carrier shall be the operator of the Replacement Aircraft, (iii) a (new) Flight Brief shall be issued, (iv) the Carriage Agreement shall automatically be assigned from the previous Carrier to the new Carrier (and the previous Carrier shall be released from any obligation or liability in relation thereto), (v) the Client shall pay any additional costs incurred in connection with such change of Carrier and aircraft and (vi) the Replacement Aircraft shall be deemed to be the “Aircraft” for the purposes of the Replacement Flight ;

(4) If the Replacement Aircraft is not part of AASA’s or AAL’s fleet, (i) the Carrier shall not bear any obligation or liability in respect of the Replacement Flight and shall in particular not be deemed to be the contractual carrier for such Replacement Flight, (ii) a new flight confirmation (and, as applicable, a new flight brief) shall be issued (which shall be governed by the Charter Flight Brokerage Agreement which is available on the following website : www.albinati.aero), (iii) the part of the Price paid by the Client which should have been refunded to the Client in accordance with the previous paragraph of this Article (had a Replacement Flight not been performed) shall be credited against the payment of the price under the new flight confirmation, and (iv) the Client shall pay any additional costs incurred in connection with such change of carrier and aircraft.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Carrier shall not have any obligation to find a Replacement Aircraft and arrange a Replacement Flight.

The Client shall pay to the Carrier all additional costs arising from or in relation to any Adverse Event (in particular in case of any change or delay to the Flight(s)).

Generally, all information regarding the Flight(s) which is provided in the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief may be changed at any time by the Carrier (in particular at the time of issuance of the Flight Brief) in its sole discretion, without the Carrier incurring any obligation or liability to the Client or the Passengers. In particular :

- (1) The Carrier may change the handling agent and/or the crew ;
- (2) The departure and arrival times may be modified by the Carrier, in particular because of airport slots, traffic rights, takeoff, overflight, landing and parking permissions ;
- (3) The flight time (or block time) is given for information only and may change in particular because of weather conditions and air traffic control orders ;
- (4) The routing may be adapted by the Carrier in particular because of weather conditions or other operating reasons, and may include a diversion or a stop ;
- (5) The Carrier may replace the aircraft designated in the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief by another aircraft of its fleet of an identical or similar model, which shall be deemed to be the “Aircraft” for the purposes hereof. If the replacement aircraft is not part of the Carrier’s fleet but is part of AASA’s or AAL’s fleet (as applicable), (i) the previous Carrier shall not bear any obligation or liability in respect of the Flight(s) and shall in particular not be deemed to be the contractual carrier for the Flight(s), (ii) the new Carrier shall be the operator of the replacement aircraft, (iii) a (new) Flight Brief shall be issued, (iv) the Carriage Agreement shall automatically be assigned from the previous Carrier to the new Carrier (and the previous Carrier shall be released from any obligation or liability in relation thereto), (v) the replacement aircraft shall be deemed to be the “Aircraft” for the purposes hereof.

- (4) Which may result out of or in connection with any breach by the Client or any Passenger of any applicable laws, regulations, orders, demands and travel requirements (including immigration, customs and agriculture regulations) or of the Carrier’s rules and instructions pertaining thereto.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing and subject to any compulsory provision to the contrary of any applicable national or international law or regulation, the Client shall be liable for, and shall indemnify and hold the Indemnitees harmless against, any claim of any kind whatsoever from any Passenger or any related third party.

Article 13: Subcontracting by AAL

When the Carrier is AAL:

- (1) AAL shall be entitled to subcontract to AASA the performance of certain tasks under or in connection with the Flight(s), in particular the issuance of any flight quotation, the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief and the preparation of the Flight(s) (including the gathering of all information and documents related to the Passengers);
- (2) Unless otherwise expressly provided, any document (including any flight quotation, the Flight Confirmation and/or the Flight Brief) issued by AASA and any action performed by AASA shall be deemed issued/performed in the name and on behalf of AAL, AASA acting only as direct representative of AAL;
- (3) In such case, for the avoidance of doubt, the carriage agreement is entered into between the Carrier (being AAL) and the Client, and AASA is not a party to such carriage agreement and shall not bear any obligation or liability in relation thereto (without prejudice to its rights under these Conditions of Carriage);
- (4) AASA does not act as air carrier (in particular, AASA does not act as contracting or actual carrier) and does not provide air transportation services; and
- (5) Any liability of AASA and of its shareholders, partners, affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, servants, auxiliaries, successors and assigns for any Damage arising out of or in connection with its activities as direct representative of AAL is excluded, subject to any compulsory provision to the contrary of any applicable national or international law or regulation.

Article 14: Applicable Law and Jurisdiction

The Carriage Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Switzerland, excluding its conflict of law provisions.

Any dispute, controversy, or claim arising out of, or in connection with, the Carriage Agreement, including the validity, invalidity, breach, or termination hereof, shall be submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Geneva, Switzerland (subject to the right to appeal to the Swiss Federal Court), to which the parties hereby irrevocably agree to be submitted. The foregoing shall not prevent the Carrier to sue the Client and/or the Passengers before any other competent court.

The choice of law and jurisdiction clauses above are subject to any compulsory provision to the contrary of any applicable national or international law or regulation, in particular the Warsaw Convention, the Montreal Convention and the EC Regulation.

Notice to the Passengers

(According to Art. 3 Para. 1 Lit. C of the Warsaw Convention, Art. 3 Para. 4 of the Montreal Convention and Art. 6 Para. 2 of the EC Regulation)

The Warsaw Convention, the Montreal Convention and/or the EC Regulation may be applicable to the Passengers' journey and these instruments govern and may limit the liability of air carriers in respect of death or injury and for destruction or loss of, or damage to, Baggage, and for delay.

Where the Montreal Convention or the EC Regulation applies, the limits of liability are as follows:

- (1) There are no financial limits in respect of death or bodily injury. For damages above 128,821 SDRs per Passenger, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault.
- (2) In respect of destruction or loss of, or damage to, or delay in respect of, Baggage: 1,288 SDRs per Passenger in most cases.
- (3) In respect of damage occasioned by a delay to the journey: 5,346 SDRs per Passenger in most cases.

Where the Warsaw Convention applies, the limits of liability are as follows:

- (1) In respect of death, bodily injury or damage occasioned by a delay to the journey: 16,600 SDRs per Passenger in most cases.
- (2) In respect of destruction or loss of, or damage to, or delay in respect of, Baggage: 17 SDRs per kilogram for checked Baggage and 332 SDRs per Passenger for unchecked Baggage.

Regardless of which Convention/Regulation applies to the journey, the Passenger may benefit from a higher limit of liability for destruction or loss of, or damage to, or delay in respect of, Baggage by making at check-in a special declaration of the value of the Baggage and paying any supplementary fee that may apply. Alternatively, if the value of the Baggage exceeds the applicable limit of liability, the Passenger should fully insure it prior to travel.

Summary of the provisions on air carrier liability for Passengers and their Baggage

This information notice summarises the liability rules applied by Community air carriers as required by Community legislation and the Montreal Convention, in case these instruments are applicable to the Passengers' journey.

Compensation in the case of death or injury

There are no financial limits to the liability for Passenger injury or death. For damages up to 128,821 SDRs the air carrier cannot contest claims for compensation. Above that amount, the air carrier can defend itself against a claim by proving that it was not negligent or otherwise at fault.

Advance payments

If a Passenger is killed or injured, the air carrier must make an advance payment, to cover immediate economic needs, within 15 days from the identification of the person entitled to compensation. In the event of death, this advance payment shall not be less than 16,000 SDRs.

Passenger delays

In case of Passenger delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for Passenger delay is limited to 5,346 SDRs.

Baggage delays

In case of Baggage delay, the air carrier is liable for damage unless it took all reasonable measures to avoid the damage or it was impossible to take such measures. The liability for Baggage delay is limited to 1,288 SDRs.

Destruction, loss or damage to Baggage

The air carrier is liable for destruction, loss or damage to Baggage up to 1,288 SDRs. In the case of checked Baggage, it is liable even if not at fault, unless the Baggage was defective. In the case of unchecked Baggage, the carrier is liable only if at fault.

Higher limits for Baggage

A Passenger can benefit from a higher liability limit by making a special declaration at the latest at check-in and by paying a supplementary fee.

Complaints on Baggage

If the Baggage is damaged, delayed, lost or destroyed, the Passenger must write and complain to the air carrier as soon as possible. In the case of damage to checked Baggage, the Passenger must write and complain within seven days, and in the case of delay within 21 days, in both cases from the date on which the Baggage was placed at the Passenger's disposal.

Liability of contracting and actual carriers

If the air carrier actually performing the flight is not the same as the contracting air carrier, the Passenger has the right to address a complaint or to make a claim for damages against either. If the name or code of an air carrier is indicated on the ticket, that air carrier is the contracting air carrier.

Time limit for action

Any action in court to claim damages must be brought within two years from the date of arrival of the Aircraft at destination, or from the date on which the Aircraft ought to have arrived.

Basis for the information

The basis for the rules described above is the Montreal Convention, which is implemented in the Community by the EU Regulation and national legislation of the Member States.
